Vedette Directory.

UTAH.

Area, 100,382 square miles—Population 20,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 17,000,) situate on the great highway westward, in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most beautiful in the Union, and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of islands and Lake is peerlessly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains 260 blocks, of 10 acres each, (each divided into 8 lots,) and 4 public squares. Its level streets, running due east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties, the towns of which range from 6,000 to 600 population.

EXTRAORDINARY MEMORIES.—Morphy and other eminent chess-players have recently given evidences of their extraordinary memories. Dr. Wallis tells us that he could, by mere effort of memory, perform arithmetical calculations, as multiplication, division, subtraction of scores etc., to any places. Zerah Colburn, George Bidder and Jedediah Buxton were also wonderful mental arithmeticians. The last named once mentally calculated how much a farthing doubled 140 times would come to, and the answer was set down from his lips in 39 places of pounds and an odd 2s. 6d.; and being once asked how many barley-corns would reach eight miles, answered in one and a half minutes, 1,520,640. Sir Walter Scott had a marvelously retentive memory; so had Macaulay, who it is said could repeat from memory the whole of Paradise Lost. In the stirring days of Athenian political greatness, a man could be found who could repeat the Illiad and the Odyssy, and we have read of a man in Naples who could repeat the whole of Tasso's Jerusalem Delivered, and not only repeat it consecutively, but repeat any stanza in any given book, repeat those stanzas in utter defiance of the sense either backward or forward, or from the eighth to the first line alternately. We have heard of several persons (notably, the late blind Jamie of Sterling) who could repeat the whole of the Bible or any required verses of it. There are, besides, dozens of living persons with marvelous memories, the chief of whom is perhaps Elihu Burritt, the Mezzofanti of the present day.

Why should a young lady resent a squeeze from her sweetheart? Because such man-nip-ulations are improper.

"A Vital Question before the World."

"Polygamy purely as a religious institution, and 'the Anti-Polygamic Act' as prohibiting the free exercise of a religious faith. Congress dares not to look at."—Daily Telegraph.

"Dares not," sure enough. No man—no body of men whose moral perceptions are not entirely deadened by licentious passions, dares look upon polygamy as a "religious institution." The thought itself is blasphemy. Paganism with all its polygamous practices never yet descended to so low a depth of infamy and cowardice as to engraft it among their religious tenets. Even the negro tribes of central Africa, who, like the Mormons here, allow a man to have "as many wives as he can support," do not blaspheme the name of the Creator by claiming for their vicious practices the sanction of heaven. But while polygamy has ever been and is practiced by the lowest and most debased among the tribes of men, it is left for modern Mormonism alone to herald it forth as an essential element of salvation.—as a direct command of God! Was ever impudence more insulting? Was ever blasphemy more terrible? Surely these men are beneath contempt. They can with a high hand and a loud voice lay to the door of God the greatest monstrosity of the age, and then come whining and snivling before the people and Congress, asking them to believe that He acknowledges its paternity! Poor fools and blind! Experience should have taught them long ago, that not among the intelligent and educated, not in civilized America, are they to hope for converts to their licentious creed. Possibly some speculating "Yankee," ambitious of place, wealth and power, might join them, as some few have in the past—but he would not be weak enough to believe if he was rogue enough to practice their impious rites. Surely there is none among the latter class so blindly fanatical as to expect the Congress of the United States to recognize their "peculiar institution" as the religion of Heaven! It remains for an unnaturalized foreigner—a would be expounder of the laws he transgresses to exercise such peculiar faith as that. "Polygamy," as he well says "is regarded as a crime" by Congress. Thank God that it is so, and not only by Congress the day will never come when it will be otherwise. Neither will the day ever come when Congress will forbear to enact laws against and to punish a hideous crime, simply because it is claimed by its votaries to be a part of their "religion." Let these people remember, that what in the light of christian civilization is regarded as a crime, cannot be canonized into a virtue. Polygamy is just such a crime. Christianity for more than eighteen hundred years has taught against it, and the enlightment of the present age—the legitimate results of that teaching—cries out against it. It finds no sanction in philosophy, moral or divine. Nature with her thousand tongues condemns it, and the better feelings of all hearts revolt at it. Its only authority is this: An ambitious and licentious man says he received it from God, and the people are asked to believe it! Some of his followers, perhaps, embrace it from choice, but the greater number because "Counsel" orders it. The argument now seemes to be that the more polygamists there are in Utah, the safer will it be for those who have already incurred the penalty of the law. Hence the effort now being made to impress upon the people, the idea that polygamy is an essential portion of their church creed. We warn them again to hesitate, before they wilfully set at naught the laws of the land; for the day is close upon them, when not even the favor of the "First Presidency," can avert from them the penality of transgression.

The Lyon Smelting Process.

54 lbs from four days' run—value in coin, $3240. In currency $4698.

The Colorado Miners' Register of the 8th, says: We had the pleasure to day of seeing the first brick from Lyon's furnace; it is from four days' run and weighs fifty-one pounds Troy and is estimated to be worth $3.240 in coin, or $4.698 in currency. Lyon says that in another week he will show the skeptical a krick that will make their eyes water, and weighing three or four times as much as this one. Lyon has always had the greatest confidence in this process, and we are glad to record this his first practical demonstration of its success, and hope the next brick will meet his expectations. For ourselves we have been loth to endorse fully any process, for there has been many failures, but now unhesitatingly say that we pin our faith to Lyon's process, and to him we look for the practical demonstration of the fact that "there is gold in the quartz" and that it can be saved by one process at least. We do not wish to be understood as condemning or throwing cold water on any other process; there may be better than this of Lyon's, but the fact yet remains to be proven; we wish them every success, and will gladly record any facts in connection with their operations; but in the meantime we say Bully for Lyon.

THE London Times says it has no objection to the United States annexing Canada, and all the rest of the American Continent, provided the people of the provinces are willing, but it don't want to see us "gobble up" all creation without consulting the proprietors.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 19.

Mr. Doolittle presented the credentials of Wm. Marvin, Senator elect from Florida. After some debate, the credentials were ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Lane, of Indiana, called up the bill in relation to pension agencies, giving the appointing power as to pension agents to the President, instead of, as at present, to the Secretary of the Interior, also giving the President the right of defining pension districts.

The bill to enlarge the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau was taken up. Hendricks, of Indiana, spoke at length in opposition to the measure. Mr. Trumbull replied. The question was taken on the amendment confirming the titles to lands under Gen. Sherman's order, issued at Savannah, three years instead of forever, as in the original bill. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Sumner presented a petition of the citizens of the District of Columbia, asking the abolition of all laws making distinction on account of color.—Referred.

Washington, Jan. 20.

The bill authorizing the President, instead of the Secretary of the Interior to appoint pension agents, and name boundaries of pension districts, was read three times and passed without amendment by restricting operations of the bureau to the States lately in rebellion, after some debate. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 19.

A bill regulating compensation to Postmasters was introduced; referred to Post Office Committee.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Commerce to enquire into the expediency of amending the act of July 14th, '62, so as to exempt from tonnage taxes on flatboats and barges, on western waters, carrying produce to market.

A resolution was adopted asking information from the Secretary of the Treasury, as to what was the apportionment of authorized circulation of notes made in different States and Territories.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Ways and Means Committee to enquire into the expediency of repealing that portion of the revenue law relative to stamp duties on written instruments.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Navy appropriation bill and discussed and struck out the appropriation of one hundred and five thousand dollars for the purchase of Leavy's Island, adjoining the Ports mouth navy yard. The bill was laid aside.

The Committee on Invalid pensions, to day, through Perham, of Me., reported adversely on the widow of Gen. Sumner praying for an increased pension of from $30 to $50. The Committee could, while so many poor widows of common soldiers were receiving only eight dollars. This is supposed to settle a large class of claims of the same kind, now before the Committee.

GENERAL NEWS.

Boston, Jan. 19.

Hon. J. G. Smith, Ex-Governor of Vermont and manager of the Vermont Central Railroad, has been appointed President of the new board of directors of the Northern Pacific Railroad. The general office of this company has been opened in Boston, under the new manager. The entire interest of New England has become closely identified with the Northern Pacific Railroad, the construction of which will be commenced at the earliest practicable moment.

The World's Richmond special says, Virginia to-day is quiet as the State of New York or Massachusetts. The people, white or black, are suffering from nothing but poverty. All the insinuations about virulent antagonism between whites and blacks, all hideous allusions to negro insurrections as the result of the oppressive measures of the whites towards the blacks, are wicked inventions. Gentlemen from the interior declare that never were negroes more quietly disposed towards those who were their former masters and never were the latter more kindly disposed towards those lately dependent on them. The negroes are gradually giving up all notions of the millenium that was to come with the New Year's Day and rapidly seeking and obtaining work, quite as rapidly as the impoverished landholders are able to employ and pay them.

New York, Jan. 20.

The Commercial's Washington correspondent says, Romero refuses to credit the reports of the withdrawal of French troops from Mexico, and bases his opinion upon the fact that the Imperialists are preparing a vigorous campaign in northern Mexico, which is the stronghold of the republic of that country in order to crush opposition and also interpose an army between the United States and Mexico. He reports the withdrawal of the French based upon unofficial statements in newspapers, circulated, he alleges, for the purpose of misleading public opinion in this country. Romero asserts that Louis Napoleon is intent upon a scheme of territorial aggrandizement and has counted the cost. He will only withdraw when compelled to by force, or the entire submission of Mexico to his agent Max.

St Joseph, Mo., Jan. 19.

The Eagle flouring mills were burned last night. Loss, 25.000. Uninsured.

Philadelphia, Jan. 20.

Ship Lancaster sailed for Antwerp this morning with the largest cargo of petroleum ever taken from the United States in one vessel, taking 8703 barrels; containing 270.000 gallons crude oil, valued at over $200.000.

New York, Jan. 20.

The Fenian Senate met this morning. Roberts approved a resolution calling a congress of the Brotherhood to meet in Pittsburg the 19th of February.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.

The Indianapolis Express train collided with a box car at Delhi this morning, upsetting the engine and causing the death of the engineer. Several others were wounded.

Washington, Jan. 20.

A dispatch says, Gen. Howard just received a consolidated report of all the colored schools under the control of the freedmen's bureau, which shows there are at present six hundred and thirty-one schools.

FOREIGN NEWS.

New York, Jan. 19.

Letters from Kingston, Jamaica, says that in the late disturbances the negroes killed thirteen persons and the Government shot or hanged in return 2 100. Besides those, there were a large number killed by Maroons and soldiers in the interior. Of the whole number no reports have been made.

Letters from Vera Cruz says, it is understood and credited there that the French and other Imperial troops will be withdrawn from several States occupied in part by them, and concentrated at the city of Mexico: San Luis Potosi and Orizaby. The States of Sonora, Sinaloa, Durango, Chihuahua and one or two others are to be evacuated immediately. On the Pacific side Manzatlan and one other port only will be held. The French authorities are constantly sending large sums of money out of the country, in specie, to France.

New York, Jan. 20.

The Herald's special says, telegraphic dispatches from Sheridan, Orleans 18th, disavow any knowledge on his part of a fillibuster attack on Bagdad, and states that his orders to his subordinates have been to preserve strict neutrality. He disbelieves the published account of the affair and considers it a sensation.

A Brownsville correspondent gives the full official correspondence between Weitzel and Mejia at Matamoras, and Gen Crawford, at American General of the Mexican Republican Army, in relation to Republican prisoners condemned at Matamoras, to be shot, in accordance with Maximilian's decree for the execution of all those found in arms against his forces. Weitzel, in the name of his Government, protested against this barbarity. Mejia said that it was a matter in which the Americans had no right to interfere and that the execution of the decree must be proceeded with. To another letter from Weitzel, in which, in accordance with Shiridan's instructions, he had informed Mejia that in future correspondence with our officers he must not style Mexican Republicans bandits, the Imperial General again replied that all future communications of similar purport would remain unanswered.

It is rumored that Mejia will be superseded at Matamoras. The preparations of Escobada and Crawford for another attack on that place are being continued, but the Imperialists have greatly strengthened its defences since the previous assault. The latter officer's efforts to raise men in Texas for Juarez do not seem to meet with success. It is suspected that Crawford has a nice financial speculation in his eye, which can be greatly subserved by the capture of Matamoras, and which is thought to be much dearer to him than a Mexican Republic.

The Imperialists are reported to be preparing for a new vigorous campaign in the north.

Halifax, Jan 20.

The Asia, from Liverpool 6th and Queenstown 7th, has arrived. The political news is unimportant. There has been a revolt on the part of two Spanish regiments, under Gen. Prime, but it makes no progress, the insurgents being pursued to the mountains. The French Ventes closed at 68f. 27c.

Liverpool, Jan. 6.

quiet. Breadstuffs very dull. Provisions quiet and steady. Consuls closed Saturday at 87 1-2 for money; five twenties 64 1-2.

New York, Jan. 20.

The Commercial says, the advance in the rate of the banks of England and Holland has a depressing effect upon Government securities; second and third issues of five twenties stood an eight lower at the board; seven thirties are down an eighth and a quarter; ten forties a quarter; certificates are firm at 98 5-8 and in active demand. Money is abundant at five per cent.

The London Times refers to the satisfactory aspect of European affairs and trusts the prospects of a lasting peace will have some effect on the military administration of European powers, and that there will be some alleviation of these burdens which every where weigh so heavily.

The Times anticipates, by next January, that Napoleon will have withdrawn his French troops from Mexico as well as from Rome.

Mazzini is dangerously ill in London.

The cattle disease is again increasing.

A railway train, containing the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and lady, was fired at by an unknown person, near Mullingar. The driver of the engine had a narrow escape. Two young men, Henry Wilson and John C. Lewen, are said to have been arrested for Fenianism. Arms, ammunition and treasonable documents are said to have been found on them.

NOT FAVORABLY IMPRESSED.—The California Volunteers, stationed at Fort Whipple, Arizona Territory, are much disgusted with the country and their occupation of fighting Apaches. A letter from one of the soldiers states the Company is kept busy escorting prospecting parties and scouting for Indians. Four men, whose names were not mentioned, have been killed since the Company went to Fort Whipple. The soldiers do not like the Indian style of fighting. They skulk behind rocks and trees along the line of travel, picking off unarmed companies or straggling soldiers, and never risking an engagement. A party of forty soldiers had been away ten days longer than they took rations for, and fears were entertained for their safety. A detachment of sixty had been sent out to look for them.—S. F. Call.

WE had before that given way to half a dozen sisters on the trodden path and once got up to our waist in snow, and now to be suddenly brought face to face with the mule and ass, and certain to be run over if we were not as courteous to them as to the sisters, and for their sakes again get up to our waist in snow was too much, even for our Christian (?) fortitude. Could the City Fathers not have owners instructed to keep their mules and asses on the great highway? We wish they would for our diminutive sake. Telegraph, Saturday.

Hadn't thought he'd have such honesty to own up being one of the "City Father's asses," in a "diminutive" degree.

DISCRETION.—There are many more shining qualities in the mind of man, but there is none so useful as discretion; it is this, indeed, which gives a value to all the rest, which sets them at work in their proper times and places, and turns them to the advantage of the person who is possessed of them. Without it, learning is pedantry, and wit impertinence; virtue itself looks like weakness; the best parts only qualify a man to be more sprightly in errors, and active to his own prejudice.—Addison.

Be tun'd to softest music, when [illegible]
When crime's dumb bells are round thee ring.

Interesting matter on every page.

PATSEY MARLEY'S sparring exhibition and crowd at the Academy of Music, was a mighty mixed affair.

SNOW, more snow; then showers and thaw, followed by freezing, has been the order of the weather for a few days past.

TICKETS have been printed for a Cotillon Party at Eureka Hall, this Monday evening. Mr. H. Miller and others are on the management.

PER OVERLAND STAGE LINE.
To the east.—M. Graham, Col. Raymond.
To Boise.—J. L. Davis.

THEATRE AT CAMP.—We are requested to state that Manager Potter and troupe will open at Camp Douglas Theatre, Tuesday night, and continue nightly through the week.

THE Y. M. L. A. dance at Independence Hall, last Friday night, was attended by full fifty couples, appearing in the elegancies of the fashions, and fairly "suffering with pleasure," as poor Sonie would say.

"Do you suppose that you can do the landlord in the Lady of Lyons?" said a manager to a seedy actor in quest of an engagement. "I should think I might," was the reply, "I have done a great many landlords."

LIEUT. HILL, 1st Mich. Vet. Cav., Act'g Adj't at Provo City, U. T., arrived at Camp Douglas, the last of the week, for the purpose of receiving his pay, but most unfortunately for him, the Pay-Master had, previous to his arrival, distributed his "last greenback."

The recently issued orders of Lieut. Gen. Grant, commanding the armies of the United States, throws many a citizen out of employment in this district. There is consequently many long faces visible at Camp Douglas these days.

CHEAP.—Frank Root, of the Atchison Free Press, New Year's Day, says, "Spare ribs were selling in market this morning, at five cents per pound," and adds, "now is the time for any disconsolate fellow to get a rib cheap. Frank found a "rib" of another vertebra last summer, and, suppose, is satisfied already.

DAVID ALDRICH, a talented young actor, belonging to Maguire's Opera House, San Francisco, has gone east, to fill an engagement at one of the Boston theaters. The dramatic talent of California will be well represented on the Atlantic side—Agnes Perry, Little Lottie, J. B. Booth, Mayo and Aldrich.

THE Hon. Jerome B. Chaffee, recently elected United States Senator from Colorado, was formerly a merchant in the village of Union Mills, Ind. He was a successful miner and "mill man," in Gilpin county, Colorado, for a few years past, and became President of the First National Bank of Denver in the summer of '65.

THE Fort Kearney, Nebraska, Herald of the 6th, says during the cold spell in Dec when the mercury sank 29 deg. below zero, the 18th Regulars suffered extremely. The First Battalion marching west from Leavenworth had eighty men badly frozen, and the Second Battalion which accompanied Col. Carrington to Kearny, had sixty men more or less severely frozen.

BRIDGING THE PLATTE.—The Fort Kearney Herald says that Col. Carrington, commanding that Fort, has warmly supported the recommendation of Gov. Saunders, Gen. Heath and others, to bridge the Platte, at or near Fort Kearney, and will commence a preliminary survey on Monday, with a view to such further recommendations as may be best in the development of the future State of Nebraska.

THE Black Hawk Journal, of the 10th, says, "Mr. Fitzpatrick shipped 152 ounces of gold yesterday morning, the result of a week's run from thirty-five stamps, upon which Mr. F. assures us there was a thousand dollars absolutely clear profits. Mr. E. took charge of the Gunnell Company's work about the first of August, since which time he has shipped East 2,252 ounces of gold—at the generaly prevailing rates of premium during that period, worth $51,776."

Editors, Special Correspondents, and Congressmen seem to have it ("Polygamy on the brain,") the worst and are catching it dreadfully. Quite a number of others would catch it still worse if they had the chance. Telegraph, Saturday.

That last sentence "slipped" on him, unawares. Well, it's nothing more than many of us know, around, about here. "Quite a number of others [caged-up wives and cowed-down serfs,] would catch it still worse if they had the chance." You bet they would. This victimized community is thinning like a shell, in its adherence to your humbug "holy practices," and waits but for the aid and influence of the coming years, to burst slam bang against old Brigham's barbarism.

[illegible] now some daily and several weekly newspapers in Richmond.

The month of January is named—as all know—from Janus, the Roman God, who presided over this period of time. Verstegan, in a book published in 1626, called Restitution of Decayed Intelligence, says the month was called among the Saxons Wolf-Monat, or Wolf Month, because the wolves, then so troublesome in the island of Great Britain, were impelled by hunger to come down into the settlements, and the Government, to encourage their destruction, paid a high reward for every wolf's head.

BOOTS AND SHOES FOR ALL.—In these days of greenbacks among the gallant Michigan men and others of the Camp and City, it should be borne in mind that Wm. Sloan, at Gurney & Co's late stand, East Temple street, (next to the "City Billiard Saloon," has on sale a mammoth stock of best custom-made boots and shoes, for gents, ladies, youths and every body; all of the latest styles, and by far the cheapest, for the style and quality, of any assortment in the "City of the Saints." Call and examine for yourselves. 1t

A QUESTION IN PASTRY.—A committee of a school-board, no matter where, was examining a class in a primary school. One of the committee, to sharpen up their wits, propounded the following question: "If I had a mince pie, and should give two-twelfths to Harry, and two-twelfths to John, two-twelfths to Isaac, and should keep half the pie myself, what would there be left?" There was a profound study among the scholars, but finally one lad held up his hand as a signal that he was ready to answer. "Well, sir, what would there be left? Speak up loud, so that all can hear!" said the committee-man. "The plate!" shouted the hopeful fellow. The committee-man turned red in the face, while the other members roared aloud. The boy was excused from answering any more questions.

WE dropped in for a few moments yesterday afternoon at the Tabernacle, and were much edified by the remarks of the second "Saintly" speaker. He gave the "Saints" "particular fits" for their "lukewarmness" in the "cause," and their association with "Gentiles," and ascribed it all to their love for "filthy lucre." It is very probable that their inordinate "hankering" after "greenbax" has something to do with the increasing apostacy from the "Latter Day Saints," but is not the main cause. It's the light of truth breaking in on the minds of those who still have common sense enough left to think for themselves, that is "playing hob" with your religion on wires, and which will ultimately (for the decree has gone forth!) cause your false religion (?) to crumble to pieces, and its leaders to "call on the rocks and hills to fall on them"! We think the speaker rather gave "Bro. Brigham" a "stunner" over the shoulders of the Gentiles, when he referred so bitterly to "dram-shops," "billiard saloons," "prostitution," &c.—You're not very expert at "dove-tailing," "Bro." ——!

SUNDAY.—As usual in this section, the Sabbath passed off passively, with little left to note on Monday mornings, such as could be gathered up in the live cities of the States. Interesting Christian exercises and Anniversary addresses were enjoyed at Independence Hall, the Rev. Mr. McLeod officiating. Of this we hope to have more room to note at length to-morrow.

Speaking of Sunday, we read that it was originally the seventh day of the week, that on which God rested from the work of creation, and was called in the Hebrew tongue, Sabbath. After a while, we are told by the historians, the Christians changed the Sabbath day from the last day to the next succeeding, and called it the Lord's day, from its being the day of resurrection, and the time when the work of redemption was completed. The Christian Sabbath, therefore, is now the first day of the week, or Sunday, while the Hebrew Church retain the last day of the week for their Sabbath,—Sabbath, as a word, meaning the name of the institution, or holiday itself, while Sunday means only the name of the first day of the week, from being the time when the north of Europe heathens said their prayers to the sun. The Emperor Constantine effected the change, or supposed change of the Sabbath, from the seventh to the first day of the week, after his conversion to Christianity. So much from our "Sunday reading."

Later From Montana.

The Virginia Democrat of the 10th, and Helena Radiator of the 6th, came down by yesterday's mail. From the former we clip:

THE Pioneer mill, at the Summit, is now in full operation, and works like a charm, crushing quartz in an astonishing manner.

VOTE OF THANKS TO GEN. MEAGHER.—At a regular meeting of the Robert Emmit Circle of the Fenian Brotherhood, held at their Hall, in Nevada City, on Saturday evening, January 6th, 1866, a vote of thanks was tendered to General Thomas Francis Meagher, for his able lecture delivered before the Circle, in aid of the establishment of a reading room for the benefit of the society.

NEW GOLD DISCOVERY!—We learn that one of the richest discoveries of gold yet made in this Territory, has been found near the mouth of Sun River, on the south side of the Missouri, and within forty-five miles of Fort Benton. It is represented that the pay-dirt yields [illegible] extensive. More than 1000 persons, it is said, left Helena and vicinity, this week for these new diggings—it was a regular stampede. Every horse, pony and wagon about Helena was pressed by the impatient miners to reach the Sun River mines and secure claims. These mines are at the base of the Belt mountains. The prospectors who have been out since the suspension of work in the gulches, have made an immense amount of discoveries of rich mines, and every day we hear of new ones being found.

From the Helena Radiator we extract:

SULTANA QUARTZ LODE.—The runs of the Fisher Mill, on quartz from this lode have been as follows: First week, eighty-eight ounces retort; second week seventy-two ounces retort; third week, one hundred and twenty three ounces retort; and after a run of thirty-nine hours on the fourth week, ninety nine ounces were taken from the plates.

Old Mrs. Terpsicore, the same female who was always on hand at the Olympic games and such other doings among the ancient Greeks, was certainly very much fatigued during the holidays in this city, at the many places where her attention was required.

The late Lewiston, North Idaho editor evidently is a strong admirer of the drama, from the following critiques:

Mrs. Chapman's Benefit last Thursday evening was a success. The house was filled to overflowing and all seemed well pleased. Mrs. Chapman, supported by Harry Taylor did her part beautifully. To see this lady in Richard III, almost induces one to believe that "King Richard is himself again."

Notice,

IS hereby given that the co partnership heretofore existing between Elbridge Gurney and David T. Beals, under the name and style of Gurney & Co., became disolved on the 29th day of October, 1865, by the death of Mr. Elbridge Gurney, one of the members of said firm—the business of said firm at Nevada and Helena, in the Territory of Montana; at Great Salt Lake City; in the Territory of Utah; and at Idaho City, in the Territory of Idaho, is discontinued. No contracts entered into in the territories aforsaid at any time hereafter in the name of, and for the old or new firm, will be valid unless made with our Agent, F. C. BROWN or with the undersigned. All persons having claims against the said firm, will present them at our house for payment.

I shall continue the business in which the late firm was engaged, at Virginia city, Montana, and shall supply part of our successors in the houses we have discontinued, with our goods as before. The style of the new firm will continue to be Gurney & Co.

"Just as the bee sucks her sweets,
From every flower she meets,
What from many a source we drew
We give, tho' not the whole as new."

A Marriage Song.

I saw two clouds at morning,
Tinged by the rising sun;
And in the dawn they floated on,
And mingled into one;
I thought the morning cloud was blest,
It moved so sweetly to the west.

I saw two summer currents
Flow smoothly to their meeting,
And join their course with silent force,
In peace each other greeting;
Calm was their course through banks of green,
While dimpling eddies played between.

Such be your gentle motion,
Till life's last pulse shall beat;
Like summer's beam and summer's stream,
Float on in joy to meet
A calmer sea, where storms shall cease—
A purer sky, where all is peace.

Enjoyment soon wearies both itself and us; effort never.

Pleasure may be at the helm, even if youth is no longer at the prow.

Brain without pluck is as valueless as pluck without brain.

Men are not concealed under habits, but are revealed by them; they are their garments.

The proud have no friends—not in prosperity, for then they know nobody; not in adversity, for then nobody knows them.

Virtue is not to be considered in the light of mere innocence, or abstaining from harm, but is the exertion of our faculties in doing good.

ANOTHER STATE.—The division of the State of Oregon is being agitated, says the Statesman, which adds: "The proposition now stands as follows: Give Oregon all west of the Cascade mountains, and lying between California and British Columbia, and form a new State or Territory east of the Cascades, out of the territory which would be detached by the Cascade line from Oregon and Washington. It will take time to accomplish it, and by the time the machinery can be set at work, the people east of the mountains may be ready and able for a State organization. We are in favor of the division."
